

Improving Environmental Performance: Next Generation Compliance Tools, Theory, and Practice

Innovating environmental compliance assurance, Novel insights and approaches from social science,
April 21 & 22, 2015

Location:

Erasmus University, Burgemeester Oudlaan 50, 3062 PA Rotterdam, the Netherlands

Sponsor: Human Environment and Transport Inspectorate, the Netherlands
Rotterdam School of Management, Erasmus University Rotterdam
Cosponsors: George Washington University Law School Environment and Energy Law Program
US Environmental Inspection Agency
VIDE

Tuesday April 21

2:00 – 3:15 pm Registration and reception (3rd Floor, Registration & Restaurant I)

3:15 – 5:15 pm Workshop one: Regulation as a learning system (3rd Floor, Forum M3-15)

Moderator: Chris Dijkens, Human Environment and Transport Inspectorate

Paper presentations:

Reviewing the value of mandatory certification and testing arrangements for safety and health, Linda Drupsteen, TNO

Learning in regulation, Ernst van Bemmelen van Gent, Haagse Hogeschool - designing training/courses

Assessing Climate Change MRV initiatives in Latin America: Bridging theory and practice, Belen Olmos Giupponi, University of Stirling to improve understanding of compliance.

5:30 – 6:30 pm Walking network dinner (3rd Floor, Restaurant I)

6:30 – 8:30 pm Key note session: Compliance and enforcement across borders (3rd Floor, Forum M3-15)

Moderator: Campbell Gemmell, University of South Australia; University of Glasgow

Key note's: Annetje Ottow, University of Utrecht

Michael Faure, University of Maastricht; Erasmus University Rotterdam

Lee Paddock, George Washington University, Washington DC

Wednesday April 22

9:00 – 9:30 am Registration (3rd Floor, Registration & Restaurant I)

9:30 – 10:30 am Welcome and plenary opening addresses (3rd Floor, Forum M3-15)

Campbell Gemmell, Canopus Consulting, University of South Australia, University of Glasgow, Day Chair

Roeland Nieuweboer, Human Environment and Transport Inspectorate

Martin de Bree, Erasmus University

Chris Dijkens, co-chair of INECE

Concise evaluation of yesterday's workshop & preview coming workshops

10:30 – 12:30 am Parallel workshop two: Ethical behaviour (3rd Floor, Forum M3-15)

Moderator: Niek Hogervorst, RSM Erasmus University

Paper presentations:

Improving industrial safety culture, Maarten Wim Kooijman, DCMR Milieudienst Rijnmond

Moral messages, compliance by fairness, Han de Haas, Provincie Noord-Brabant

Trust based supervision, Rob van Dorp, Human Environment and Transport Inspectorate

Exploring the value of process safety culture for law enforcement in major hazards industries, Robert Bezemer, TNO

10:30 – 12:30 am Parallel workshop three: Interventions (2nd Floor, Santander M2-11)

Moderator: Karin van Wingerde, Erasmus University Law School

Paper presentations:

Sanction Mapping: A tool for fine-tuning regulatory intervention strategies, Grant Pink, University of New England, Armidale

Developing the quality of new safety legislation in the Netherlands, Robert Mout, DCMR Milieudienst Rijnmond

How companies govern and comply with a diversity of public and private rules, including self-regulation, Edith van Bellen-Weijnen, University of Utrecht

The Influence of Citizen Environmental Complaints on Regulatory Administrative Sanctions for Industrial Pollution Control in India, Keerthi Kiran Bandru, Humboldt University Berlin

12:30 – 1:30 pm Lunchbreak (3rd Floor, Restaurant I)

1:30 – 3:30 pm Parallel workshop four: Self-regulation and self-policing (3rd Floor, Forum M3-15)

Moderator: Sharon Oded, De Brauw Blackstone Westbroek

Paper presentations:

Gathering information under compliance mechanisms, Zerrin Savasan, Selcuk University, Selçuklu, Konya, Turkey

Supervision; dare to change, Paul Meerman Omgevingsdienst Midden- en West Brabant

Global Pollutant and Greenhouse Gas Emissions Reporting– Complexity and Implications for Multinational Corporations, Jonathan Nwagbaraocha, Xerox Corporation

Development of Alberta's oil sands: The Fort McKay First Nation's perspective on environmental management, Ryan Abel, Fort McKay Sustainability Department and David Spink, Pravid Environmental Inc.

1:30 – 3:30 pm Parallel workshop five: Smart Instruments for Public Law Enforcers (2nd Floor, Santander M2-11)

Moderator: Grant Pink, University of New England, Armidale

Paper presentations:

Evidence by sampling and analyzing in criminal cases of transboundary shipments of ordinary wastes. Sijmen Roosma, Human Environment and Transport Inspectorate

Improving Environmental Compliance in China through Intensive Top-Down Verification of Emission Reductions, Xuehua Zhang, Sichuan University Chengdu, China

3:30 – 4:00 pm Plenary conclusions and closure – Day Chair (3rd Floor, Forum M3-15)

4:00 – 5:00 pm Closing Party - Refreshments and snacks (3rd Floor, Restaurant I)