CREATING VALUE THROUGH ENVIRONMENTAL COMPLIANCE

As the only global network of environmental compliance and enforcement practitioners, INECE communicates the fundamental role that environmental compliance and enforcement play in building the foundation for the rule of law, good governance, and sustainable development.

building capacity

INECE STRENGTHENS CAPACITY THROUGHOUT THE REGULATORY CYCLE TO IMPLEMENT AND SECURE COMPLIANCE WITH ENVIRONMENTAL REQUIREMENTS.

INECE offers worldwide training, including the Principles of Environmental Compliance & Enforcement course, along with courses on inspections, performance measures, water governance, import-export controls, and other topics.

INECE supports the International Network for Environmental Compliance Training Professionals, a practitioner knowledge community that shares information and best practices, supports trainer education and exchanges, and promotes the importance of effective environmental compliance training.

INECE maintains a library of resources on designing training programs and on actual environmental compliance courses and guidance.

developing networks

INECE DEVELOPS NETWORKS FOR ENFORCEMENT AND COMPLIANCE COOPERATION.

INECE develops practical topic-specific networks on seaport environmental security, climate compliance, and environmental prosecutors.

INECE supports the development of new regional enforcement networks and collaborates with existing regional networks.

raising awareness

INECE RAISES AWARENESS OF THE IMPORTANCE OF ENVIRONMENTAL COMPLIANCE AND ENFORCEMENT.

INECE hosts international conferences, regional meetings, and topic-specific workshops to educate practitioners, foster enforcement cooperation, and promote compliance and enforcement as key to achieving environmentally sustainable development.

INECE maintains extensive Web resources for practitioners to share ideas and learn from topic-specific forums, news, regional pages, digital libraries, interactive discussion forums, and searchable databases at inece.org.
